ENCOURAGING NEWS.

Reports from the Philippines Are Pleasing to the Administration.

Washington, March 23.—Advices from the Philippines are so encouraging for peace that the war department is considering the advisability of reducing the garrisons in the archipelago. The reorganized army will be recruited to the full strength of 100,000 men, but it is believed that future requirements will not compel the administration to maintain this maximum.

About 30,000 regulars will be entitled to their discharge in the current year. places. Thus the army can be reduced | co paid the $5000. to 70,000 men in a perfectly natural way TO SUPPRESS GAMBLING. without interfering with its discipline

Serious embarrassments has been caused the administration and the debe unable to authorize the felling of a half to the common school fund. tree to provide the planks necessary for the construction of a new house or the were to lose a spar and her commander from the public lands without violating the law. Not only is the sale or lease fice and disqualified hereafter from holdof timber prohibited, but the sale or ing office in this state. lease or other disposition of public lands and the granting of mining rights are made illegal.

This legislation was directly contrary to the wishes of the president and Secretary Root, who are convinced that in order to promptly develop the islands the introduction of American capital is necessary. Secretary Root does not believe that congress intends to curtail the privileges of the people of the islands and it is believed he will hold that the president is authorized to grant forest concessions

Captain G. P. Ahern, Ninth infantry who has charge of the forestry bureau of the Philippines, reports that the public forest lands comprise from one-fourth to one-half of the area of the Philippines or from 20,000,000 to 40,000,000

Paid Spain for Islands.

Washington, March 23. - Secretary Hay today gave the Spanish minister, Duke d'Arcos, a treasury warrant for $100,000 in payment for the island of Cagayan and other islands near the Philippine group. The payment was made in accordance with the terms of the treaty negotiated last November. The protocols were also signed exchanging the final ratifications which confirm the title of the United States to these Funston Gone After Aguinaldo.

Manila, March 23.—General Funston has gone into Isabella province with 10 men and a company of native scouts on a daring attempt to capture Aguinaldo.

Hanging in Arkansas.

Arkadelphia, March 23.-John Wesley, a negro, was hanged here today for rape in the presence of 2000 people, who stood in a heavy rain for three hours to witness the scene. The trap was sprung exactly at 10 o'clock. Wesley made no statement on the gallows, but a week ago confessed committing two similar crimes near here two years ago and the crime he was convicted of.

The New York will convey Mr. Gunin New Jersey where he will hereafter mere, United States consul general, from Tangier to the seaport of Mazargan whence he will travel overland to Morrocco City, the political capital of Morrocco, there to demand from the sultan of Morrocco an apology for an apparent discourtesy to the United States, committed by the sultan's grand vizer and his minister of foreign affairs. At the same time Mr. Gunmere will request the sultan to settle certain claims of the United States long pending against the government of Morrocco.

These claims arise largely from alleged undue interferences by officials of the sultan with American citizens doing business in Morrocco.

The occurrences happened some time ago and the suggestions of the American government through its consular representative that the claims arising therefrom be settled by Morrocco have been ignored by the sultan. When Mr. Gummere said he would see the sultan personally on the matter of these claims he was told by the sultan's grand vizier and his minister of foreign affairs that any such effort would be useless as the sultan will remove himself and his minwho the president will appoint. Assaulted on a Train.

Farmersville, Tex., March 23.-At a citizens' meeting on Thursday night to consider means to put down violations of local option and gambling laws Chas. Dial of Greenville made a strong talk in favor of law and order. It seems that some of citizens of the town took exceptions to something he said, or to the fact that he was from another county, and Friday morning when he left for Greenville several men boarded the train also. When the train was nearing Floyd some of these men attacked him, and when he reached Floyd he was found to be severely beaten about the head. The men were taken in charge by the Hunt county officers.

Objection to Four Clauses.

Havana, March 23.—The committee on foreign relations of the Cuban constitutional convention has reported on the Platt amendment. In substance the report rejects four clauses—the clauses dealing wish coaling stations, foreign relations, the right to intervene to preserve peace, and the entering into treaties covering the points in question. The other clauses are treated on the lines of the previous report, the sanitation of the Isle of Pines being virtually agreed to.

EXPOSITION SCULPTURE.

an-American Has the Best Ever Seen at a Show.

In its sculptural adornment, as well revera other respects, the Panmerican Exposition will far surpass ny enterprise of the kind ever held. here are over 125 splendid original oups, and they are to be used around ne Court of Fountains, the Esplanade and the Electric Tower. They will ymbolize the purposes of the buildngs and exhibits and bring out the many in what to many may seem exreedingly prosaic things.

After crossing the Triumphal Bridge, which is the grand formal entrance to file main court and is itself to be decprated with splendid statuary, one will ee to the right and left, at opposite ds of the Esplanade, the fountains ind the sunken gardens in front of the United States Government and Horticulture buildings respectively.

The Fountain of Man, by Charles Graffy, is the central fountain at the east of the Esplanade, and it is flanked by the Fountain of Prometheus and the Fountain of Hercules. The subjects of other fountains in this group will be the Savage Age, the Despotic Age and the Age of Enlightenment. At the other end of the Esplanade the Fountain of Nature, by George T. Brewster, is the most elaborate sculptural adornment, and the idea of this tountain is amplified in minor ones, such as the Fountain of Kronos, Fountain of Ceres and the groups typifying Mineral Wealth, Animal Wealth, etc. These symbolic ideas will be worked out in beautiful forms in other parts of the main court and in connection with the lectric Tower and other buildings, the whole forming a most complete and harmonious expression of the purposes of a great Exposition, such as the Pan-American.

THE GAS BILL.

A Legend Done Into English by Your Uncle Ell.

Once upon a time an eminent citizen entered the office of a gas company and threw down the month's bill he had received that day and shouted: 'Now, by the beard of my father, but I am wroth and want gore!" 'Anything wrong?" kindly and sympathetically queried the young man at Globe.

the window "Wrong! Wrong! Can you not read? Can't you get that sum total through your young and innocent "Of a surety I can, sir. I see by this bill that you are charged with 50,000 feet of gas at $1.50 per thousand for the last month-total, $75. Prithee, sir, but why this fervidness of speech?" "I never burned that gas!"

"But the meter, sir-the meter makes no mistakes. It runneth night and day, like a brook to the sea. It bath business to do, and it doeth it. The meter records that you burned 50,000 feet of gas during the last month. What the meter records is recorded. However, I will summon here the secretary, who is a man of more fluency of speech than myself."

"Why this kick, my dear sir?" kindly asked the secretary as he appeared. "Because of the size of this bill."

"But you must remember that last was a long one. You have but to glance at the calender to see that the days and nights numbered thirty and one. 'Tis the calender you should blame. You will easily recall that the days were dark and dreary and the nights long and full of lonely shad-

"But I was away on a visit, and my house was deserted. I did not even burn one foot of your infernal old gas!'

"'Tis passing strange," quoth the secretary. "I will summon hence our president, who hath the knack of unraveling strange things."

"Man, hath thy better senses left thee?" severely asked the president as he looked upon the kicker. "Hath news of war or the excitement of politics turned thy head? Hath escaped from some insane asylum and come here with wheels in thy head?"

"Not by a jugful! How could I burn your gas in my house when it was shut up? I was away with my family on a visit, and I will make a thousand affidavits that no burner was left lighted as I went. 'Tis robbery, sir; 'tis bold faced, cold blooded robbery!"

"'Tis a song that is ever being sung!" exclaimed the president as a look of sorrow crossed his face. "Prithee, fellow man, but no one says you burned the gas, and no one denies that your house was shut up. This bill is simply for the leakage which always takes place in a house when the family is absent. 'Tis but a triffe, and if thou art inclined to raise a great row and"-

A CREDIT CHECK SWINDLE.

Trick by Which One Firm Got Dollars Without Selling Shirt Waists.

That there is no end to the ways of imposing upon the suffering New York public was illustrated by the failure of a small store recently. The newly appointed receiver was surprised by having many women come to his office with credit checks. These checks were for small amounts, ranging from $1 to $10. At first the receiver couldn't understand it, but upon investigation he learned the details of a pretty system

The firm, it seems, had made a specialty of silk and cotton shirt waists. These were, with few exceptions, shapeless, ill fitting garments, and when the unfortunate women shoppers got home with their purchases and put them on they were disgusted to find that the bargain sale waists were remaking. Such being the conditions they invariably took the goods back and demanded other waists or their money. It was contrary to the principles of the firm to refund money, and as they seldom had waists more becoming either in style or shape than the ones returned, they were driven to the extremity of credit checks.

"We will get in a new supply of waists in a few days," was the suave assurance of the manager and his well trained assistants. "Your check will be good at any time, and when we replenish our stock you can select a waist that suits you." But the new stock never arrived, and in spite of the good dollars received from deluded customers without decreasing their capital of waists, the firm became insolvent and then the women began to come with credit checks. So far the receiver has been unable to compensate them for their loss through the swindle which, in ite

"And why on only those three days?" queried the New Yorker, to whom the delights of life in Brooklyn were being

and Their Friends, and the Patrons of Our Schools-A Movement to Build a Bryan Teachers' Cottage at Boulder.

Several teachers go each year from Bryan and Brazos county to attend the great chautauqua assembly at Boulder, Colorado. A plan is offered by the association directors to enable teachers to get cottage rent free and 'ree entertainment, etc., which is in substance, as follows:

The Colorado Chautauqua Association on January 19th, 1901, adopted resolutions offering to any Texas town the privilege to build a cottage on the chautauqua grounds, not to cost less than $200, giving free lease of the land on which such cottage is erecteduntil Sept. 30, 1918. Free entertainment at the chautauqua will be given for a number not exceeding two representatives to each room in said cottage or cottages for the seasons of 1901, 1902 and 1908, including general ton. admission to the grounds, tnition in all general classes of the sammer school, and admission to the Chautauqua lectures, concerts and entermust be regularly accredited as rep- inson. resentatives of the town that has erty and improvements.

Respect for Authorities Decreasing.

Berlin, March 23.—In the lower house of the diet President Von Kroecher, communicated the result of his audience with Emperor William when the officers of the reichstag and the diet expressed the indignation experienced by members at their respective houses at the recent outrage at Bremen. His majesty said to President Von Kroecher that he was solely pained by the outrage because it convinced him that since the death of Emperor William I, the an elegant roast at Franklin Bros. 00 respect for authorities had decreased among the people, particularly among the youth. The emperor thought everybody without distinction had a share in the blame for the present conditions. He considered the press to be a potent instrument in upholding the authorities and he was confident the deputies of all parties would do all in their power to see that necessary steps were taken to assure a full measure of respect for the authorities.

New York, March 23 .- A dispatch to The Herald from Havana says the reason the Cuban postoffice cases were turned over to a special fiscal and that Horatio Rubens and L. Q. C. Lamar were notified their services in the case were no longer required was because of the strained relations between Gov. Wood and Mr. Rubens which was publickly known to exist. Mr. Rubens offered to withdraw six weeks ago. The governor's action is believed to have been caused by recent political devel-McGee's Female Tonic and Combined Treatment. Something new. For weak, delicate women. A tablet for local use in connection with Tonic. Price $1.00. DISCUSSION OF TRUSTS.

Prof. Jenks of Cornell University Gives His Views on This Question,

New York, March 23.—Prof. J. Jenks of Cornell University expert agent of the United States industrial commission delivered an address before the academy of political science of Columbia University Friday night. "A discussion of trusts," was the topic.

"An evidence that combinations are flourishing in this country," said Prof Jenks, "is the fact that the heads of various European trusts come here to study them. I received a letter from the head of one of the Austrian trusts a few days ago and he tells me he is coming here to study the subject."

The speaker declared that combinations had in a great measure done away with the system of credit. Under the competitive system, he said, the producer had to give credit to the dealer. The system of combinations, however, had put the producer in a position in which he could exercise his judgment as to who he would give credit. Continuing, the speaker said:

"The question of special factors is in favor of the trusts. The producers is true nevertheless. They also receive competition within a country, it affects it when international competition is

"There are men in this country today, and many of them, whose wealth has become so great that they care little or nothing about their business reputations. These men are dangerous."

Prof. Jenks took exception to the declarations that combinations were sapping away the independent spirit of Americans. He said he believed there was just as much chance for the young man today as there ever was. The rewards he said were certainly greater. Speaking of remedies, Prof. Jenks said:

"Revise our tariff laws. Revise our patent laws. Make laws compelling corporations to publish a more detailed statement annually. Make them show something about their business. It is the normal conditions of economic life that have brought about great trusts. the workmen. The trusts are saving ment of this legislature. Although the energy that was wastefully spent under measure passed both the senate and the competitive system."

Cotton Goods Trade Depressed. London, March 23.-There are unmistakable signs of more trouble between masters and operatives in the cotton trade. The period of trade activity has been followed by a reaction, accelerated by the high prices of raw materials, the poor demand from India and almost complete stoppage of buying from China. Lancastershire spinners and weavers held out longer than their rivals in the United States or on this continent but the rapid closing down of mills shows their turn is coming and as the American crop is likely to be insufficient even for reduced consumption. there is not much prospect of the low level quotations for raw cotton to invigorate the demand for yarn and cloth. If some agreement whereby wages may be adjusted according to the state of trade is not soon concluded the declining profits force masters to reduce wages.

TEXAS LEGISLATURE.

The House Spends a Day on the Land Measure.

THE BILL GOES OVER

The Breaking of the Quorum on Galveston Charter Bill Discussed and Committee Appointed to Investigate Members.

Austin, Marce 23.—The first bill taken up yesterday by the house was the land bill. The bill was before the house all the forenoon and a portion of the afternoon. Several amendments were passed aed the bill was laid aside when the time came for taking up the appropriation bill. The appropriation measure was postponed to Tuesday.

The land bill was again taken up and Mr. Hawkins offered an amendment was adopted, requiring three ontinuous residence on pain of ye. Ontinuous residence on pain of fort iture, but providing that no forfeiture shall occur where the purchaser is dispossessed by a writ of injunction or temporarily yields possession on account of a well grounded fear of sickness or bodily injury.

The house then adjourned for the night session.

During the day session the absence of a quorum on Thursday nighr in which the absent members were charged with being at the opera house for the sole purpose of defeating the Galveston charter bill, was aired, but besides the appointment of a committee to investigate the charge no action was

At the night session the Galveston charter bill was taken up and discussed but no action was taken.

The house made provisions for the appointment of a committee to redistrict the state into congressional districts.

Representative Shaw said that he was authorized by the governor to say that there would be a special session immediately upon the adjournment of the present session to consider the redistricting proposition.

The senate devoted the entire morning session to considering of the Waters-Pierce oil bill seeking to force them to pay penrities in McLennan county

At the beginning of the afternoon session the bill went over until Monday.

The senate passed a bill by Messrs. Miller and Johnson amending Article 5060 G, with reference to suits on bonds of liquor dealers. It provides that if the sale is made in good faith, with the belief that the minor was of age, and in good faith to a habitual drunkard, not knowing he was such, that shall be valid defense to any recovery on bond.

Mr. Davidson of Galveston had considered his bill donating to the city of Galveston for 15 years all state taxes except school taxes to be used in raising the grade of the city.

The bill was finally passed by a vote of 14 to 8.

Mr. Turner secured consideration of deny that they are special favors, but it his bill to ascertain and adjudibate by suit against or by the state certain favors from railroads. The protective claims against or in favor of the state tariff is in the nature of special favors. for land lying between the Nueces and and finally passed.

Error in Libel Bill. Austin, March 23-The civil libel bill, if signed by the governor, will not take There are great possibilities in them for effect until 90 days after the adjourn house by the two-thirds vote necessary to give it immediate effect, the senate concurred in the house amendments by viva voce vote only. As the vote of concurrence was nailed down by adopting a motion to table a motion to reconsider the vote, it is impossible to back up and have the house amendments concurred in by an aye and no vote. The newspapapers will not be able to avail themselves of the privilege of the act for over three months to come.

The bill reached the governor Friday evening and would have been signed by him had it not been for the fact that enacting clause was omitted in enrolling the bill in the senate. The senate has adopted a resolution recalling the bill for correction.
